

No Contract, No Work Idles 68,000 Miners

Diggers Ignore Lewis' Plea To Work

Pittsburgh, Jan. 16—(AP)—No contract, no work strikes today idled 68,000 United Mine Workers in six states and one of the largest coal mine owners shut off credit at company stores.

United States Steel Corporation, through its subsidiary Union Supply Co., today told the miners in effect: No work—no credit.

A U. S. Steel spokesman explained: "Since July, bills have gone beyond what would be good business practice. We've helped the miners over the hump many times, not only during strikes, but we've reached a point where we can't go any further with it."

Operates 100 Stores
Union supply operates about 100 stores throughout the country. They mainly serve employees of H. C. Frick Coke company, U. S. Steel's coal producing subsidiary.

The miners who stayed away from the pits today did so despite John L. Lewis' suggestion—traditionally an order—that they dig coal.

Lewis sent a telegram to district UMW chiefs last week following a "spontaneous" walkout of some 69,000 UMW members. The wire asked that the leaders transmit to idle members "my suggestion that they resume production next Monday."

Restless miners rallying behind a "we want a contract" slogan cut heavily into already depleted coal reserves. But President Truman was quoted as saying he still lacks sufficient evidence to declare a national emergency.

Truman Will Act
Senator Scott Lucas (D-Ill.) told reporters following Mr. Truman's weekly conference with democratic congressional leaders:

"The president told us he wouldn't hesitate to act when he thinks the situation justified it."

UMW heads, from Lewis down, offered no explanation for the latest in a series of work stoppages in the nation's sprawling soft coal fields.

Vice President John D. Battle of the National Coal Association said it is "a rebellion against Lewis."

Operators have branded sporadic strikes a union policy of harassment in Lewis' long fight for a new contract.

Trouble loomed for the UMW in Indianapolis where the AFL-Progressive Mine Workers challenged the bargaining rights of the UMW in the Julian mine near Vincennes, Ind.

The Progressives filed a petition with the regional office of the National Labor Relations Board there asking a bargaining election among the 300 Julian miners.

Says Russ May Be Developing Swift, A-Bomb Aircraft

Washington, Jan. 16—(AP)—The National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics said today "it is logical to assume" Russia is working hard to develop super-speed warplanes to deliver atomic weapons.

The committee reported American gains in "the continuing race for air leadership," and called for efforts "to consolidate these gains and to push forward."

The NACA, the government's chief agency for basic aviation research, made the statement in its 35th annual report to Congress.

Russia was identified by reference to "another nation" that apparently has produced an atomic explosion. The only such country is Russia.

After mentioning the atomic explosion in Russia, the report said: "It is logical to assume that an intensive effort is being made to develop a means for transporting atomic weapons with as high a degree of effectiveness as possible and at the same time to provide defense against invading aircraft armed with atomic weapons."

Says Anti-Trust Work Will Be Set Back If Bill OK'd

Washington, Jan. 16—(AP)—Senator Long (D-La.) said today that the so-called basing point pricing legislation coming up Friday in the Senate would "set us back 60 years in anti-trust work" and that big interests are pushing it hard.

It was brought out at a news conference that 75 university and college economists have taken a stand against the bill.

Long and Senator Douglas (D-Ill.) told the news conference they will battle the bill but neither would predict the outcome.

The bill permits business firms acting independently to equalize prices to various points despite differences in freight costs.

Truman To Speak In Fight For 'Fair Deal'

Washington, Jan. 16—(AP)—President Truman may make a public statement this week in an effort to ward off a death blow to his fair deal program in congress, it was reported today.

Mr. Truman, "considerably disturbed" by a southern democratic-republican coalition coup to seize control in the House, was said to have called on his legislative chiefs to fight the move vigorously.

The president met with congressional leaders for their usual Monday session as the House buzzed with behind-the-scenes strategy leading to a vote on a proposal to restore to the rules committee its old power to kill off legislation without letting the House act.

Many Truman bills wouldn't stand a chance with republicans and southerners sticking together on the committee, it is believed. They voted 9 to 2 last Friday to ask the House to kick out the year-old rule which allows the rules committee to be bypassed after it has sat on a bill for 21 days.

President Truman himself is said to have been among those suggesting the present rule which administration leaders put across in 1949 to upset the Dixie-GOP coalition which had been swinging the axe effectively on a lot of Truman measures.

The showdown may come late this month. Chairman Sabath (D-Ill.) of the rules committee, who opposes the change, can wait ten legislative days before calling it up.

Mr. Truman, it was reported, may speak out publicly at his Thursday news conference.

House Speaker Rayburn was understood to have told the president that the vote may be extremely close. Some administration democrats say privately that White House help may be necessary to save the situation.

Anticipating a bitter struggle, Rep. Comer (D-Miss.), one of the southern democrats leading the demand for a rules change, said he looks for pressure from labor groups, the administration, "the so-called progressives and the left wingers." He predicted victory, and another southerner, Rep. Rankin (D-Miss.), forecast a possible majority of two to one.

Leader Of PMW Sides With Miners Against Gas Heat

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 16—(AP)—The president of the Progressive Mine Workers union today sided with miners who refused to work with a Collinsville coal digger because he was equipping his home with gas heat.

John Marchiondo, state PMW chief, said he could do "nothing but sustain the action" of the Collinsville local union members who went on record opposing the use of gas heat by miners.

Marchiondo said the miners "acted to protect their jobs and the jobs of their co-workers in the coal mining fields and elsewhere."

The local has a by-law providing for a two year suspension if a member uses other than coal or wood for heat.

The shunned miner, Charles Walchekauskas, 56, was taken off his job a week ago at the Lumaghi Mine No. 2 when other miners refused to work with him.

Walchekauskas earlier appealed to Marchiondo for help in getting the by-law repealed. The miner claimed that his 20 year old son, Edward, a rheumatic fever sufferer, was made ill by coal furnace fumes.

Marchiondo said in a statement: "We don't believe his son's illness has anything to do with his wanting a gas furnace in his home." Marchiondo said this merely was an "excuse."

Reproductive Ill In Cattle Spreads To Twelve States

Chicago, Jan. 16—(AP)—A reproductive disease in cattle that hides behind another disease has spread to 12 states, the American Veterinary Medical Association reported today.

It is called vibrio infection. It causes a premature calf rate loss of from 5 to 12 per cent a year in some herds. Sheep also are susceptible.

The infection cannot be detected when the animals are suffering from brucellosis, a disease widely responsible for cows losing their calves. However, when brucellosis has been eradicated in a herd and calf losses still occur, vibrio infection sometimes has been the cause.

The disease has been reported in New York, New Jersey, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma and Connecticut.

Wears Faucet As Finger Ornament

London, Jan. 16—(AP)—Mrs. Mary Woodroffe had such an attachment for a kitchen faucet that she took it to the hospital with her today.

Her finger was firmly wedged in the faucet. A plumber cut the faucet from the sink and Mrs. Woodroffe, wearing the faucet, went to Middlesex hospital. There they separated her from it.

She did not say why she stuck her finger in the faucet in the first place.

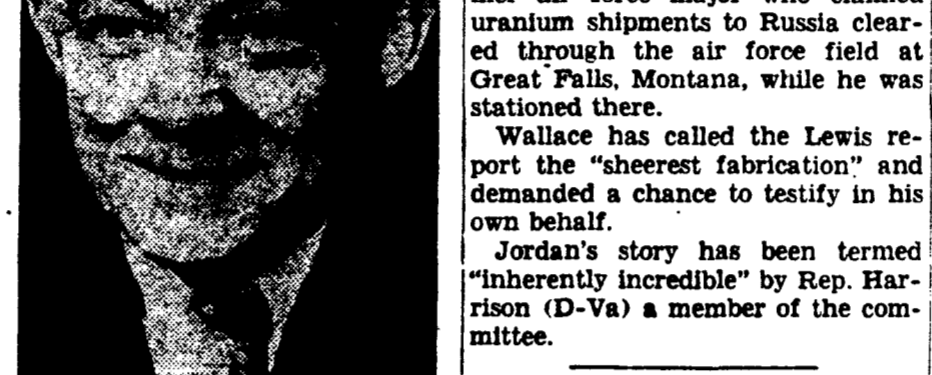

Group To Question Wallace, Groves On Uranium Deals

Washington, Jan. 16—(AP)—The house un-American activities committee decided today to question former Vice-President Henry A. Wallace and Lieut. Gen. Leslie R. Groves late this month in its investigation of reported wartime uranium shipments to Russia.

The committee's decision was made known by Rep. Nixon (R-Calif.).

'HAP' ARNOLD DIES

Gen. Henry H. (Hap) Arnold (above), 63, pioneer American pilot who commanded the three million men of the Army Air Forces during World War II, died of a heart attack in his ranch home near Sonoma, Calif.

Mr. Truman, it was reported, may speak out publicly at his Thursday news conference.

House Speaker Rayburn was understood to have told the president that the vote may be extremely close. Some administration democrats say privately that White House help may be necessary to save the situation.

Buddies Dig Hard To Save 2nd Man Buried In Cavein

Mahanoy City, Pa., Jan. 16—(AP)—Inch by inch, weary rescue workers dug deeper into the jumbled debris of an anthracite mine today clinging to a fading hope of finding, still alive, a 25-year-old miner buried in a cavein Friday.

Chances of Edward Burda's survival 120 feet underground are one in a hundred, veteran miners admit. But the dogged and dangerous search for him goes on, every worker remembering that Burda's brother Joseph, 30, was rescued early Sunday.

Clawing at the rock and coal with compressed air drills, picks and even their bare fingers, the rescuers were making painfully slow headway. The hole inched deeper at a rate at times only one foot in five hours.

The diggers were driving a three-foot shaft at a 60-degree angle into broad mountain, where the five Burda brothers operate a small independent mine.

About 18 feet from the bottom of the 120-foot mine the rescue workers found the end of a rope which they thought was attached to a mine car used by Burda.

Spectacular Fire Destroys Quincy Warehouse; 3 Hurt

Quincy, Ill., Jan. 16—(AP)—A spectacular fire fanned by a strong wind and fed by exploding gasoline tanks destroyed a three-story brick warehouse tonight.

Three firemen were hurt, none seriously, fighting the blaze in the Tony Vidas Transfer and Storage company.

Vidas said the loss amounted to "several hundred thousand dollars." Cause of the fire is not known.

Eleven transfer trucks were destroyed in the fire. Their exploding tanks threw gasoline around the blazing interior of the building.

The wooden interior soon was destroyed and parts of the walls and roof collapsed. All fire apparatus in the city, including the tri-township fire engine, was used in battling the blaze. The tri-township engine previously had been used only for fighting fires in rural areas.

Vidas said the building contained a quantity of furniture, $700,000 worth of farm machinery, four Hammond organs and stored soy bean meal.

Police To Query Students In Death Of College Worker

Lancaster, Pa., Jan. 16—(AP)—Police turned to the Franklin and Marshall student body today in search of a tip that might lead them to the killer of Marian Louise Baker.

Investigators admitted they had turned up no significant clue to the brutal battering of the pretty 21-year-old stenographer, slain last Tuesday after leaving the F. & M. campus where she was employed.

The police asked college authorities for a list of all students who were absent from classes last Tuesday. They said they want to question all of them.

Miss Baker's body, fully clothed and battered about the neck and face, was found Saturday under a summer cottage on an isolated 140-acre farm three miles south of Lancaster.

Her watch, smashed at 3:35, indicated the time of her death, only 35 minutes after she was last seen.

Rules U.S. May Deport Naturalized Citizens

Washington, Jan. 16—(AP)—The supreme court, splitting 4 to 3, ruled today that the attorney general may deport aliens convicted of certain crimes even though they were naturalized citizens when convicted.

(B) Exclude from this country an American soldier's war bride if he regards her as a security risk.

The divided court, acting in three separate cases, held that the attorney general acted within his rights when he:

1. Ordered the deportation of Richard Eichenlaub, 45, former New York restaurant owner and Otto A. Willumeit, 45, a one time leader in the German-American Bund. Both are German born, former naturalized citizens.

2. Denied admission to Mrs. Ellen Knauft, 33, German-born war bride of a U.S. veteran merely by ruling that "she would be a hazard to internal security." She is the wife of Kurt W. Knauft, now a civilian employee of the army at Frankfurt, Germany.

In all three cases, the court majority included Chief Justice Vinson and Justices Reed, Burton and Minton. Justices Black, Frankfurter and Jackson dissented in all three. Justices Douglas and Clark took no part. Justice Douglas is still recuperating from injuries received in a riding accident.

Willumeit served five years in prison for conspiracy to commit espionage. He and four others, including Bund Leader Gerhard Wilhelm Kunz, were accused of plotting to give military secrets to Germany and Japan in the hope of defeating Russia. Willumeit pleaded guilty in 1942.

Willumeit, once publisher of a Bund journal, came here from Germany in 1925 and was naturalized in 1931. His naturalization was revoked in 1944 on grounds of fraud in obtaining it.

In 1946 he was ordered out of the country as a dangerous enemy alien.

Krupp, Wartime Owner Of German Arms Plant, Dies

Essen, Germany, Jan. 16—(AP)—The newspaper Essener Tageblatt said tonight that Gustav Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach, 79, wartime owner of the giant Krupp armament works, had died in Salzburg, Austria.

Krupp had been paralyzed since the end of the war. He was excused from facing a war crimes tribunal because of ill health.

The newspaper said it learned of his death from his family. The newspaper Die Welt also said that Krupp had died.

He is survived by his widow, Bertha, "Bibi Bertha," the famous long-range cannon that he had built in World War I was named for her.

The aged munitions king was born Gustav Halbach in The Hague, The Netherlands, where his father was in the diplomatic service.

Both his father and mother were born in Philadelphia, Pa. His mother's father, Henry Bohlen, was a general in the Union army during the American civil war and was killed in the battle of Rappahannock.

Gustav served with the German embassy in Washington and then was transferred to Rome where he met Bertha Krupp, heiress to the immense steel and armaments works in the Ruhr.

They were married in 1906 at a ceremony attended by Kaiser Wilhelm II who gave Halbach the right to bear the name Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach as a tribute to the Krupp family which was largely responsible for the growth of German military power.

Over 400 Autos Marooned On Lake In Giant Ice Floe

Oshkosh, Wis., Jan. 16—(AP)—Hundreds of cars threatened their way off Lake Winnebago today after being marooned overnight on a giant ice floe.

The cars were left behind Sunday when a strong west wind ripped the ice loose from shore and shoved it out into the lake. A thousand or more ice fishermen were rescued by rowboat, but the cars had to remain on the floe.

Some 250 cars were abandoned in the Oshkosh area and another 150 or 200 were reported to the south between here and Fond Du Lac.

The Wisconsin conservation department today found a "bridge" of solid ice leading to the eastern shore near Chillicothe, across the lake from here.

Car owners, who had left their names with police, were notified and the drivers set off in a series of convoys, led by a conservation department truck.

By nightfall, Carl Dinger of the Oshkosh police department said only 26 cars remained on the floe in this area and most of those to the south also had been driven to safety on the eastern shore.

House Building Set Record In '49

Washington, Jan. 16—(AP)—House construction set an all-time record in 1949 with work started on 1,019,000 dwelling units. Of those 863,700 were privately financed.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics said today the total is about nine per cent above the previous record of 937,000 units started in 1925. The 1948 figure was 931,300.

The BLS said the average construction cost of one family house in the July-September period was $7,625 or $400 below the figure for the same period in 1948.

PHILIPPINE LEADER UNDERGOES OPERATION

Baltimore, Jan. 16—(AP)—President Elpidio Quirino emerged from an hour long kidney stone operation today in "excellent condition" and with a merry word of cheer for his family.

"I feel like a fighting cock," the president muttered as he roused from sleep less than an hour after the operation.

The surgery was performed at Johns Hopkins hospital by Dr. J. A. C. Colston.

POLICE LOSE RECORDS IN TWO BLAZES

Porto Alegre, Brazil, Jan. 16—(AP)—Porto Alegre, whose police courts lost records of pending trials in a recent fire, lost its rogues gallery in a police headquarters blaze today.

The police had trouble in trying to beat down today's fire. The fire of extinguishers were empty. The appropriation they had asked to fill the extinguishers never was passed.

Locomotive, Its Brakes Gone, Runs Wild In Wisconsin

Milwaukee, Jan. 16—(AP)—The forward section of a huge, streamlined locomotive, its brake cylinders shattered, careened through four depot yards today before stopping itself on an upgrader.

"We just prayed," said Engineer William Jordan, 69, of the Milwaukee road's crack Olympian Hiawatha, which smashed into a semi-trailer and truck near Duplainville, 17 miles west of here.

Jordan and his fireman, Benjamin Fuelleman, rode the uncontrollable engine through Brookfield, Elm Grove, Wauwatosa and the Union Station here. Finally, after negotiating the sharp curves at both ends of the station here, the engine stopped on an upgrader atop a trestle over the Kinnickinnic river.

"Our prayers were answered," added Jordan. "I told Fuelleman to pray, too, out loud. And he did."

The heavy passenger train, bound from the west coast to Chicago, was traveling at a speed estimated at 80 miles an hour when it smashed into the truck. The driver, who saw the collision coming, leaped to safety. Just what happened then no one knows for sure. The train stopped, but the lead section of the diesel engine kept right on going. The impact smashed the two air brake cylinders, cutting off control of the engine.

Runaway New York Bus Kills 2 And Injures 47 People

New York, Jan. 16—(AP)—A runaway Fifth Avenue bus rammed two trucks, wrecked a convertible coupe and then lurched into a group of pedestrians today. A man and a woman were killed and 47 others were injured, several critically.

Both of those killed were passengers in the coupe, which was crushed against an electric light pole.

They were Harry Hicks, 42, and Miss Sheila Heron, 24, both of Jackson Heights, Queens. The driver of the coupe and two other passengers were among those critically hurt.

John Farrell, 28, driver of the double-decker bus, said the brakes failed to hold as the huge vehicle came down the incline at the Manhattan end of the Queensboro bridge, which spans the East river.

"Hold on, everybody!" Farrell shouted.

The bus struck a halted truck on the bridge, collided with a trailer truck in Second Avenue, smashed into the coupe and skidded into pedestrians waiting for a traffic light to change at 60th street.

Farrell was treated at a hospital for shock and later arrested on a charge of motor vehicle homicide. He was released in $1,000 bail.

Edmund C. Collins, executive vice president of the bus company, said the brakes of the bus were tested after the accident by an inspector of the Public Service Commission and were found in proper working order.

PITY THE HELPLESS PEDESTRIAN

A convertible skidded to a stop at a red light the other day in San Antonio, Texas. It halted smack in the pedestrian cross walk.

A man in work clothes, starting across the street, angrily demanded that the woman driver back up. There was room for her to do that, but her only response was: "Mind your own business."

Whereupon the infuriated pedestrian stepped onto the convertible's running board, next to its fender, then to the hood, and so down the other side. His heavy-soled shoes ground big dents into the hood and fenders. As the woman stared open-mouthed, he strolled nonchalantly off.

We don't like to condone wilful property damage, but we confess to a grudging admiration for this pedestrian's defiant assertion of his rights. In many of our cities today, the man on foot is a forlorn orphan. Too often he seems sadly neglected even in those communities whose traffic laws are designed to favor him.

Big towns like New York and Chicago are particularly thoughtless of him. Stepping off a curb in their downtown areas means plunging into a man-trap of lumbering trucks and whizzing cars, buses and taxis. Obviously, the pedestrian's presence on the street is hotly resented.

Even having the "advantage" of the red light is of little real help in crossing a street. Cars making right or left-hand turns off intersecting streets come lurching around the corner, seemingly drawn by a magnet to the nearest knot of people-on-foot.

You can almost hear the triumphant motorist, having dispersed a group at one corner, muttering to himself: "Okay, set 'em up at the next intersection!"

There's more than just safety at stake. As anyone knows who has ever sprinted for the curb like a scared rabbit, the harassed pedestrian feels a little short on human dignity at that moment.

Until cities begin putting stiff limits on this wildly irresponsible game of pedestrian chasing, they can hardly claim to be the guardians either of safety or elemental human dignity.

Attacks Of Gout Often Are Result Of Heavy Eating

By Edwin F. Jordan, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

There are few things more painful than attack of acute gout. Then it is typical, it starts in the middle of the night with severe pain at the base of one of the big toes. This pain is so sharp that it usually wakes the victim from a sound sleep. People who have had gout have described the feeling as though the joint were being pried apart with a red hot poker.

Gout is almost always a man's disease, though it has been found in women. It seems to run to some extent in families, though a family history of gout cannot always be obtained. It is comparatively rare before early middle age. Over-indulgence in food is likely to bring on an attack.

The particular parts of food which appear to cause most of the trouble are called purines. Some foods contain purines in large amounts, especially sweet breads, liver, kidney, squab, and calf's tongue. Others like veal, pork, beef, sausage, gravies, and several kinds of fish, also have a higher purine content than is safe for people who are afflicted with gout.

Can Become Acute
There is a chronic form of the disorder usually called gouty arthritis. In gouty arthritis crystal-like substances called urates, made of the products of purines, are deposited in and near the joints. This stage ordinarily is not reached until there have been many acute attacks of gout over a period of years. Fortunately, acute gout can be greatly improved by proper supervision and improved diet and general living conditions.

Until the last few years gout was thought to be decreasing. Although certainly not common, gout is not as rare as was formerly believed and not much more is known about it than 100 years ago.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS

By Edwin F. Jordan, M. D.
QUESTION: If one has dropsy, can it return, or is there a special diet to prevent recurrence?—B. L.

ANSWER: Dropsy is not a disease but is a condition in which excessive fluid accumulates in the tissues, most commonly around the ankles or inside the abdominal cavity. The most common causes are heart failure or kidney failure, but severe deficiencies in the diet and other conditions can be responsible. Although diet is important in some cases, it can only be prescribed properly when the cause has been determined, and careful studies of the dietary needs have been made.

Baptists Will Hold Conference On Evangelism

A conference on Evangelism will be held at the First Baptist church of Jacksonville by the Illinois Baptist State Convention for the churches of the Quincy, Springfield, and West Central Associations, Tuesday, January 17.

DR. C. ARLIN HEYDON

From 4 to 6 p. m. there will be a conference on the various phases of evangelism for the local church. Dr. Fred MacArthur, pastor of the Central Baptist Church, Quincy, will bring a message on pastoral evangelism. Dr. MacArthur is pastor of the largest downstate Baptist church in Illinois.

Dinner will be served at 6 p. m. in the social rooms of the church. Miss Anna L. Jensen, one of the Baptist home missionaries, will speak at the dinner hour.

Rev. C. Arlin Heydon will be the speaker at the evening service. Dr. Heydon is the newly appointed director of Evangelism for the American Baptist Home Mission Society for the central area, which includes the states of Kansas, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri and Illinois. Dr. Heydon comes to this work from the pastorate of the First Baptist church in Topeka, Kansas.

Representatives from the Quincy, Springfield, and Jerseyville churches and surrounding area will be attending this conference.

Dorothy Scott, Robert J. Headen Exchange Vows

Miss Dorothy Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott, and Robert J. Headen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Headen, were united in marriage in a lovely ceremony at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, January 15, at the home of the bride's parents, west of the city. Rev. Charles Lettze performed the wedding ceremony against a background of banked palms, baskets of flowers and candelabra. The couple's attendants were Virginia Lee Stewart and Harold German, both of Jacksonville.

The bride was attired in a blue street length dress. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. She carried a bride's bouquet of pink roses and snapdragons. The bridesmaid wore yellow with a corsage of white carnations. The flower girl, Judy Scott, and the ring bearer, Jimmy Scott, niece and nephew of the bride, both wore blue.

The bride's mother was attired in a navy print and the bridegroom's mother in gray. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

The candles were lighted before the ceremony by Miss Jeanie Mawson, who sang "I Love You Truly" preceding the ceremony accompanied by Jimmy Mawson, who played the traditional wedding march.

Mrs. Ralph Ward received the guests.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony with about 40 in attendance. Mrs. Byron W. Stewart poured and Mrs. Harry Kilham served the wedding cake. They were assisted by Mrs. Edward Scott, Mrs. Ralph Ward and Mrs. Robert Middleton.

The bride's going-away costume was an aqua blue crepe dress with wine accessories.

Both are graduates of Jacksonville High school. Mr. Headen attended Illinois college and served in the armed forces for three years. He is now engaged in farming west of the city.

After a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home on West College avenue.

HOT, FIERY GAS Stomach Like a Furnace

A Jacksonville man said recently that his stomach used to burn like a "gas factory!" That is, when he ate a meal it seemed to turn right into hot gas. He was always bloated, had gas pains daily. But now this man says he is FREE OF STOMACH GAS and he says the change is due to taking CERTA-VIN. His meals agree with him.

CERTA-VIN is a new formula. Taken before meals it works with your food, expels the gas, and thus you get the fullest good out of your meals. It contains Ten Great Herbs, plus vitamin B and iron. Besides relieving gas, it also enriches the blood (with iron) and makes stronger nerves (with vitamin B.) Miserable people soon feel better all over. So don't go on suffering! Get CERTA-VIN—MACE'S Drug Store.

Dr Blodgett Will Be Chairman Of Group Discussion

Washington, D. C. — Darrell R. Blodgett, superintendent of schools, Jacksonville, Illinois, will serve as chairman of a discussion group of the program of the national convention of the American Association of School Administrators at Atlantic City, N. J., February 25-March 2. It was announced here Monday by Worth McClure, executive secretary of the organization. The topic of the session over which Superintendent

Blodgett will preside is "Child Growth and Development." "Atlantic City is this year the nation's only city with auditorium and hotel facilities adequate to house a national convention of the school executives of the United States," says Dr. McClure. "Last year no national convention was held; three regional conferences being substituted in succession at San Francisco, St. Louis, and Philadelphia. About fifteen thousand persons are expected in attendance at Atlantic City."

John L. Bracken, Superintendent of Schools, Clayton, Missouri, and President of the American Association of School Administrators, characterized education as a moving force in a free society in the convention theme he has chosen—"Education, Dynamic of Democracy." Among the speakers who will address the general sessions are Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt; Senator Margaret Chase Smith of Maine; Walter P. Reuther, President, UAW, Congress of Industrial Organizations; Beardsley Ruml; Norman Cousins, Editor, Saturday Review of Literature; John H. Furbay, director of Air World Education; and Branch Rickey, president of the Brooklyn Baseball Club.

A special feature of the convention will be an exhibit of school building plans and models submitted by architects and builders throughout the United States. This feature is expected to be of great value to the school administrators because of the urgent need for school construction brought about by the rising birthrate and the demands for economy imposed by high costs. The adaptation of the school plant to the changing needs of the school curriculum will also be emphasized in the building exhibit.

GROUP MEETING MONDAY
Group Eight of the Woman's Council of Central Christian church, of which Mrs. Marie Shearburn is leader, will meet Monday at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Elma Savage, 524 Rosedale. A potluck supper will precede the business meeting, which is to be held at 8 p.m.

14 Candidates For County Offices File Petitions First Day

Petitions of 14 candidates for six Morgan county offices were filed Monday morning at the county clerk's office, the first step in their campaign at the primary election April 11. The majority of the petitions were on behalf of Republican candidates, but several Democrats entered races on the first day for filing. Candidates have until Jan. 23 to enter contests and get their name on the ballots.

A four-way contest for Republican nomination for county judge developed on the first day of filing.

Night Classes At High School Will Begin This Week

The first meeting of the night school classes to be conducted at the Jacksonville High School will be at 7 o'clock Tuesday, January 17. All classes will hold organization meetings on this date. Future meeting nights will be arranged to suit the convenience of the group and the instructor.

Classes will be offered in typing, child care and development, clothing, art crafts, machine shop, bookkeeping and driver training. The typing class will meet in the typing room (308), the Home Economics classes in the Home Economics rooms (305 and 307), Bookkeeping in the Bookkeeping room (304), Art crafts in the Art Room (102), Driver Training in room 208 and the Machine Shop class at the Machine Shop on West Lafayette Avenue. All classes except Driver Training will meet one night a week, three hours a night for a period of ten weeks. Work in the classes will be adjusted to fit the needs of the individuals.

Classes will be offered only where the enrollment is sufficiently large to justify holding the class. Interested persons who cannot be present the first night should leave their names at the high school—phone 1701.

Attend Funeral At St. Louis For Dr. Walter Maier

Several Morgan and Scott county residents went to St. Louis Saturday and attended funeral services for Dr. Walter A. Maier, widely known Lutheran minister and radio speaker. They included Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Marshall, son Charles and daughter Marlene of Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Lakamp of Chapin.

Nine hundred persons crowded into the chapel of Concordia seminary to attend the services at which the late Dr. Maier was eulogized as an inspiring spiritual leader and a devoted servant of God. Many more gathered around television sets, radios and loudspeakers heard the services. Thousands had passed the bier before the funeral.

The principal address was delivered by Rev. Herman Etzold, pastor of St. Stephen's Lutheran church of which Dr. Maier was assistant pastor.

Prince Charles Has Namesakes

London—(P)—More and more Britons are naming their sons after Prince Charles. Birth notice columns of the "London Daily Telegraph" alone showed 54 babies christened Charles in 1949—more than double the number in 1948.

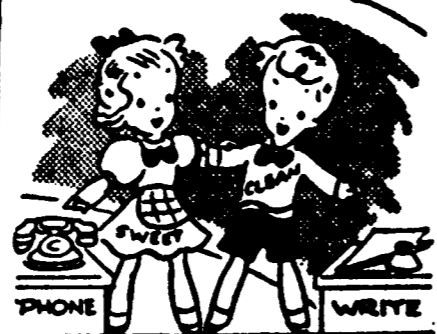

I was still well down the popularity list, however. John led, as usual, with 179, followed by David, Richard, Michael and Christopher in that order. Elizabeth—the name of the prince's mother—held second place on the girls' list. First was Susan, with Jane in third place.

WHITE HALL

White Hall—At the First Baptist church, Rev. Laurel Grigg of the Carrollton Baptist church presented a "Stewardship Advance" program for the officers and organized class officers. The entire program will be presented to members of the church at the mid-week prayer service on Wednesday night, Jan. 10.

Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Piper were hosts at their home Saturday night with a dinner party, their guests including Dr. and Mrs. Harold Norris of Jacksonville and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Hopkins of Roodhouse. Television programs were enjoyed after the dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harding and Mr. and Mrs. Dean Roe went to Highland, Ill., Thursday night to attend the Floral Association meeting which is made up of various surrounding counties. Those from White Hall who attended were the only Greene county members of the organization present. The party was held at the Widdman home with a business meeting preceding the buffet luncheon served to a large number of the members and guests.

Butcher hogs sold mostly from $14.25 to $17.00 and sows from $10.75 to $13.50. Clearance was considered good.

A few loads of choice steers brought $26.00 to $28.50 and good to low-choice kinds $20.50 to $25.00, while medium and good grades sold at $21.75 to $29.50. A load of fed heifers grading high-choice hit $25.00. Most medium and good kinds brought $21.50 to $27.50. Good cows topped at $17.50, good sausage bulls mostly at $21.00, and choice vealers at $22.00. A few loads of feeding steers grading good to low-choice merited $22.50 to $23.50.

Clearance also was good in the sheep trade, which last week absorbed heavy supplies. Choice woolled lambs topped at $24.00, summer-clipped types at $23.00, and ewes at $12.00.

Estimated receipts for today were 16,000 hogs, 11,000 cattle, 600 calves, and 3,500 sheep.

LACK OF DEMAND
LOWERS GRAINS

Chicago, Jan. 16.—(P)—Lack of demand more than any selling pressure caused gain to sink on the Board of Trade today. Major cereals suffered losses running to around a cent in quiet dealings.

While there was not much reason for selling, there was even less for buying. Both export business and domestic flour buying appeared to be in the doldrums. Outside participation in the grain market slackened.

Prospect that west Germany and Japan would be admitted to the international wheat agreement, creating the possibility of smaller American exports to these countries, created moderate selling of the bread cereal.

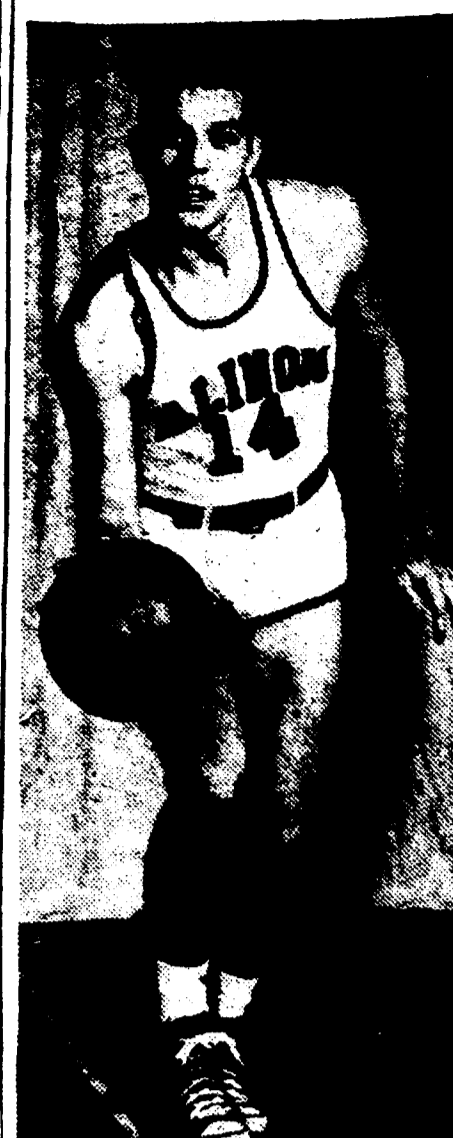

Receipts were: wheat 13 cars, corn 107, oats 23, rye 3, barley 34, soybeans 12.

Wheat closed 1-1/2 lower March

$2.14-1/2, corn was 1-1/2 lower, March $1.28 1/2, oats were 1-1/2 lower, March 72 1/2, rye was 1-1/2 lower, May $1.40-1.40 1/2, soybeans were unchanged to 1 cent lower, March $2.32 1/2, and lard was 22 cents lower to 3 cents a hundred pounds higher, January $10.40.

An act of Parliament, passed during the reign of Edward I, forbade the use of coal in London, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

ILLINI REGULAR

BURDETTE THURLBY
Illinois Guard

When Harry Combes throws his Illinois charges against Northwestern's clawing Wildcats Monday night, he'll be counting on senior Burdette Thurlby to bring the ball downcourt and start the plays.

A senior this year, Thurlby is well on his way towards winning Illinois basketball letter number-three. One of the shortest Illini regulars, he doesn't let his 6-2 frame hamper him from capturing many enemy rebounds.

Thurlby is 21 years old and hails from Kirkland, Illinois.

Freeport High Is Going Great Guns
In Prep Basketball

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 16.—(P)—The Freeport high school basketball team is sporting a new look this season, and opponents don't like it a bit. In the first place, the starting quintet is made up entirely of juniors.

Secondly, the underclassmen are tutored by a new head coach, Harry Kinert, who moved up into the spot vacated by Merritt Allen after several years with the freshman-sophomore squad.

The two factors are paying off in a handsome way.

Freeport has put together eight straight victories and seems to be picking up steam as it goes. The latest victim, strong West Rockford, lost by 10 points Friday and still came closer to matching the Pre-sets' total than seven other recent foes.

Early in the campaign, Freeport dropped two decisions—one to De-northeast of Arenzville, 10 A. M. Livestock, Robert Hammer, owner, to Elgin by four points and the second, to Elgin by a single tally in an overtime. It has notched 11 triumphs over the season to date.

Only one of the first stringers is under six feet, two inches. He is guard Ben Dorsay, a 190-pounder standing an even six feet.

The forward posts are manned by McKinley Davis and Eugene Schmitt, each 6-2. Guard Hod Fritz and center Jim Hill both are 6-4. Hill was ineligible until Dec. 29 for playing in a YMCA tournament.

Scoring ability and speed are evenly distributed over the lineup. The team has hit the hoop at a 300 or better clip in every game so far. It has averaged about 55 points a contest.

PLAN RITES FOR BURNETT INFANT

The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burnett of Waverly was born dead Monday morning at Our Saviour's hospital.

The remains were taken to the Neece Funeral Home at Waverly. Graveside services will be held Tuesday morning at 11:30 o'clock at Franklin cemetery.

GARBO TO ACT

Hollywood, Jan. 16.—(P)—Greta Garbo is coming out of retirement to play in "Lover and Friend," which will be photographed in England and France.

New York Stock
Market

New York, Jan. 16.—(P)—A quiet steadiness prevailed in the stock market today in marked contrast to the roaring declines of the past three sessions.

The volume of business amounted to only a rate of 1,400,000 shares for the entire day as compared with 3,300,000 shares on Friday.

Stocks going higher included General Motors, Goodyear, Douglas Aircraft, Westinghouse Electric and Du Pont.

Lower were Union Pacific, Gulf Oil, Johns-Manville, Philip Morris, Eastman Kodak and International Telephone.

Bond trading slumped into a mixed price pattern.

HALF-CENTURY HIGHLIGHTS

THE DANCING CASTLES symbolize a pre-World War I ballroom dance craze that swept over two continents. Doing the "Castle Walk" was a "must" for smart international society. And slim, beautiful Irene Castle set other styles—in fashion, figure and coiffure. Back in 1914, a woman's hair was still her "crowning glory." When Irene bobbed hers, it created a national furore. Defying their outraged husbands and brothers, women all over followed suit. In World War I, Vernon, an Englishman, saw action as a Royal Air Force pilot. After his death on a 1918 training flight in Texas, Irene went on to screen stardom, remarried twice, and became a Chicago socialite. She supervised the 1938 movie, "The Story of Vernon and Irene Castle," and watched her past unreal before her at its premiere.

I Love My Doctor

By Evelyn Barkins
Copyright by Evelyn Barkins. Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

OUTSIDE of my sofa tablets, I refused to swallow any other pill, even if it were guaranteed to make hair grow on my chest and enable me to sing like Lily Pons. "There should be no choice," my mother protested. "If a doctor prescribes something, you take it."

"That's the usual tyranny of the sickroom," I agreed. "But you know what a struggle it is for me to swallow even a single aspirin, so I decided to take just what was necessary, and leave the trimmings for the patients."

Then she discovered that I was eating whatever I pleased. After the tea and toast and heated milk ritual that my mother had always followed for anything from hay-fever to whooping cough, this sounded as outrageous as storing garbage pails in an operating room.

"But John said nothing is wrong with my stomach," I tried to reassure her. "He knows most people think a soft diet is necessary for any condition, but that actually I could eat anything that was tolerable to me. And this is!" I finished, pointing to an ear of canned corn, a bottle of pop, and a piece of strawberry shortcake.

"How do you feel?" John asked anxiously on the sixth day as soon as his eyes were open. This question had been propounded for days with the unfailing regularity of a radio station delivering the news.

"Better," I said cheerfully. Then, methodically, as if he were a charge nurse on floor duty, he took my temperature.

"Normal," he breathed, as he shook it down.

"You mean, I'm all better?" I asked, realizing that my usual foggiest was somewhat lighter.

"Not yet," John said. "The pneumonia's beginning to resolve, though, and it won't be long now, but you'll have to rest and lie still for another week." He smiled at me with proud appreciation, as if best-seller lists. Most of the visitors were a very proper, sober look, like a horse driver making a professional call.

The coy ones said very brightly: "Imagine a doctor's wife getting sick!" to which my regular reply was: "You ought to see the obituaries in the A.M.A."

The point was plainly wasted, since the average lay mind all deaths and illnesses are usually attributed to some doctor's delinquency.

"Very," was the solemn reply. For a moment of awed stillness, I paid my silent respects to this vanquished enemy. Then I continued with my curiosity.

"Were you very worried?" I asked next.

"Out of my wits," said John. "Good," I answered cheerfully. "Was anybody else worried too?" "You said," laughed John.

"We all were. I haven't heard the phone ringing and ringing? Which reminds me," he said with the anticipatory flourish of a waiter producing the French pastries at the end of a meal, "this week you can have visitors. In fact, beginning today."

It was obvious that John expected this news to be as welcome as a mail order catalog in a lonely farmhouse, and at first I thought so too.

My part in the social proceedings was merely to smile wanly at each new face to demonstrate my recent illness, and to talk amusingly the rest of the time to prove my recovery. Eventually I could have qualified as a diplomatic hostess, with gag-writing for radio on the side.

Almost everyone who came entered with some token of appreciation, and at first, I looked eagerly to see what each new arrival had brought, like a spoiled brat who demands: "What'sa got for me today?"

My enthusiasm faded with the repetitiveness of the presents. My collection eventually included masses of flowers, which, although I ordinarily love to have, depressed me with their funeral abundance; four boxes of mixed chocolates which the guests immediately proceeded to finish; and six books, two the same, but me, of course, directly from the

Tulsa Gems Recovered Here After Suspects Leave Grounded Plane

By WALTER H. DeSHARA

Because a Morgan county pilot got off his course and the Morgan county sheriff and a Jacksonville police captain acted quickly, two St. Louis men were arrested at East St. Louis Saturday night, and jewelry valued at more than $15,000 was recovered here early Sunday morning. The loot is believed to have been stolen from a Tulsa, Oklahoma jewelry store early Saturday morning.

The law enforcing machinery of Jacksonville and Morgan county starting humming Saturday evening when an airplane made a forced landing at the Jacksonville Municipal Airport north of the city. Three men, the pilot and two passengers stepped out of the plane which had landed west of the hangars.

The men walked to the home of Loren Moody, an implement dealer and airplane owner, to obtain transportation to Jacksonville. When the men approached the Moody home, Mr. Moody was talking with a customer in front of his office. After finishing his conversation he walked over to the men who asked him what town they were near. Moody told them they were about two miles from Jacksonville, Ill. The pilot said that he had left Independence, Kas., at 2 o'clock for Belleville, Ill., but had got off his course and was forced to land because of approaching darkness.

An attempt was made to get a taxi cab, but when one could not be secured Moody volunteered to bring the trio to the Jacksonville bus station.

Before leaving Loren Moody became suspicious, as the customer he had been talking to had remarked, "I don't like the looks of those men." Moody called his wife into the kitchen of his home and gave her his billfold and told her that if he did not return within half an hour for her to call the sheriff.

The men got into Moody's car and he started for Jacksonville. As they left the Moody farm, one of the men said that they would have to stop at the airport to get some luggage which was in the plane. Moody drove into the airport and the pilot and one of the men went to the plane and returned with the luggage which was placed in the rear of the Moody car.

When they arrived at the bus station, one of the passengers got out quickly and entered the bus station. When the second man attempted to alight something dropped from his clothing to the floor of the Moody automobile. This man picked up the object and rushed into the station. The pilot of the plane, when he and Moody alighted from the car, asked Moody if he knew what the man had dropped. Moody answered in the negative. The pilot then told him it was a .45 pistol.

Moody got back into his car and hurried home, as he feared that Mrs. Moody would be alarmed because he had not returned. Before he arrived Mrs. Moody had called Sheriff Ralph Bourn and was talking to him when Mr. Moody turned into the yard. She told the sheriff that Moody was home and that everything was all right.

When Moody entered the house he immediately called Sheriff Bourn and told him he was coming to the county jail to talk with him. Moody told Bourn of his experience.

Asks For Arrest Of Men
Sheriff Bourn immediately called the East St. Louis city police and told them to pick up the two men from a Jacksonville Trailways bus.

Two East St. Louis detectives, Sgt. Peter Iwaszyna and Detective Louis Hubert of East St. Louis arrested two men when the bus reached that city. The detectives said the men, Frank Meninger, 27, and his brother, William, 20, of 1802 Longfield Blvd., St. Louis, each had a gun, two rolls of adhesive tape and airline tickets from Tulsa to St. Louis in their possession. Frank also had $135 in cash and William $84.

The next development came when Oscar Weimer, driver for the Jacksonville Trailways, returned to Jacksonville early Sunday morning.

Weimer said that when the two men were taken from the bus at East St. Louis they claimed two pieces of luggage. When Weimer arrived at St. Louis, he found that after all passengers had left the bus he still had one piece of luggage left. Remembering the incident at East St. Louis, he returned the bag to Jacksonville and upon arrival here asked H. W. Wright, night ticket agent, to notify the Jacksonville police.

Capt. Ike Flynn went to the bus station and after doing some checking called Sheriff Bourn.

The two officers took the suit case to the police station and Captain Flynn upon opening the luggage found a small sack containing jewelry. The officers then called the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Springfield and Agents Ross Randolph and Hubert E. White came to Jacksonville to join in the investigation.

Found Loot In Sack
A check of the loot revealed that the sack contained 227 rings, many set with diamonds.

One hundred eight of the rings had price tags and checkup of the price tags showed that the rings had a retail value of $10,442. The cost of the rings was $450.

The officers placed a value of $5,000 on the 119 rings that did not contain price tags.

Some of the rings contained the name of the Walton Jewelry company, Tulsa, Okla., which had been robbed by two armed men on Saturday morning about 9 o'clock.

Tulsa Holdup Saturday
Tulsa police said that two men entered the Walton Jewelry company in the heart of Tulsa's business district about 8:45 o'clock Saturday morning. A 20-year-old employee, Willis Cowles, was opening the store safe and removing trays of diamond rings for the day's business.

One of the men, believed to be

William Meninger, walked behind the counter, produced a .45 automatic and ordered Cowles into a rest room in the rear of the store. He tied the employee's wrists with adhesive tape, strapped his mouth shut and told him not to cry out or he would shoot him.

The other man was scooping up the diamond rings and the pair left with them and $500 currency taken from the safe.

Cowles, his hands and mouth still taped, tried to get the attention of a passerby by banging his head against the glass front door. Finally he managed to open the door and ran down the street to a clothing store whose manager called police.

The trail of the robbers was picked up at Independence, Kas., about 80 miles north of Tulsa, where they chartered a private plane to fly them to Belleville, Ill.

Plane Lands At 5 P.M.
Lynn Berentz, the airport operator, got off the course and landed here shortly after 5 o'clock Saturday night.

Sheriff Bourn said that the two Meningers had three suit cases when they left Jacksonville but the men claimed only two at East St. Louis.

Captain Flynn and Sheriff Bourn said the suit case which contained the stolen jewelry also had several articles of wearing apparel and a large number of cards bearing the names of the Meningers which showed that they were St. Louis decorators. In the trousers of one of the suits of clothing in the suitcase was the name Meninger.

The two FBI agents after checking and listing the stolen property took it to Springfield. They issued a warrant Monday charging the two suspects with violation of the national stolen property act which is transporting stolen property over a state line. The FBI agents said they had numerous cases of stolen property being transported over a state line in an automobile, bus or train but that was the first case in this district where loot was taken over a state line in an airplane.

Pilot Helps Officers
Berentz, who piloted the plane to Jacksonville, told Moody that he could not account for his getting off the course as he had often flown from Independence to St. Louis. The pilot cooperated with the local authorities and remained in Jacksonville until Sunday afternoon at 2:40 o'clock when he flew his plane to Springfield to have the landing gear cleaned, it having picked up considerable mud at the local airport.

The plane was placed in a hangar at the airport by Berentz and Moody. Sunday afternoon Moody used his tractor to pull the plane onto the field so that Berentz could takeoff.

Chief of Police Frank Kiloran, Captain Flynn and Sheriff Bourn went to the airport Sunday to check the plane and search for additional loot but nothing was found.

Max Thompson of the Thompson Jewelry company assisted the officers in estimating the value of the stolen gems.

This is the second case in Morgan county during the past two weeks where citizens were alert and furnished officers with information that led to the capture of suspects in robberies.

Catholic Nurses Hear Dr. George L. Drennan

CAMPUS SPEAKER

Dr. George L. Drennan, pastor of the Westminster Presbyterian church, Dubuque, Iowa, is the visiting speaker on the Illinois college campus for Religious Emphasis Week observances which began Monday.

Dr. Drennan was presented to his audience by Miss Mary Magner, R.N., president of the Jacksonville deanery, which entertained the Catholic nurse group of the diocese of Springfield.

The speaker pointed out that in the field of health, the United States has grown from three medical schools and very few medical journals to a nation with the highest type of medical care in 1950.

"The mortality rate and expected longevity are among the best in the world," Dr. Drennan declared. "All this has been accomplished on a private enterprise basis," he said.

$18 Billion Estimated Cost
After tracing briefly the story of forms of socialized medicine in other countries, the lecturer summarized the main points of the current federal proposal as follows: "Compulsory health insurance as proposed will reach 65,000,000 of the population and will cost 18 billion dollars. The people now spend 7 billion annually for medical care."

"The bill as proposed would be financed by a 1½% tax on incomes up to $4,800 and would cover medical, nursing, and hospital care. Dental care, tuberculosis, nervous and mental care are excluded."

"Voluntary health insurance can and does accomplish all that compulsory health insurance does and at less cost to the insured," Dr. Drennan said.

The speaker called attention to the fact that the American Medical association has been in existence over a hundred years and that its members have never paid dues until this year.

The dues are $25 per year, he explained, and are being used to maintain a reserve and to promote public relations.

Association Helpful
"The American Medical association has helped to keep medical practice on the high level that is found in this country," the lecturer said. "It's activities in hospital standardization, drug and food supervision, post-graduate training of residents and interns, physical medicine, and voluntary health insurance supervision have been invaluable to the American people," he stated.

At the board meeting of the nurses, which followed the lecture, Mrs. Ruth Mitchell, R.N., of the faculty of Our Saviour's school of nursing, was elected to the vacant office of vice president.

The distribution of 300 Christmas packages to patients in 10 nursing homes by the Quincy deanery represents one type of work which the Diocese Council does.

Diocesan officers in addition to Miss Marie Hilkemeyer, R.N., president; Miss Clara Rummel, R.N., secretary; and Miss Barbara Campbell, R.N., treasurer.
